

Bylaws of American Meat Science Association

Revised: 2024

ARTICLE I - Name and Purpose

SECTION I. NAME

This organization, an Illinois not-for-profit corporation, shall be known as the AMERICAN MEAT SCIENCE ASSOCIATION (referred to herein as “AMSA” or the “Association”).

SECTION II. PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal Business Office of the Association shall be located at a site designated by the Board of Directors.

SECTION III. PURPOSE¹

The purpose of the Association as stated in its Articles of Incorporation is:

To receive and maintain a fund or funds and to administer and apply the income and principal exclusively for educational purposes in furtherance of the following objectives:

- a) To promote the application of science and technology and the production, processing, packaging, distribution, preparation, evaluation, and utilization of meat and meat products;
- b) To stimulate and provide forums and other media for the exchange, discussion, and dissemination of information and ideas;
- c) To develop and sponsor activities designed to promote the adoption of sound and useful research and educational techniques;
- d) To promote the coordination of educational, research, development, and service activities in meat science and related areas; and
- e) To promote recognition of those engaged in meat science.

Mission

Our mission is to connect a global community of professionals and students to discover, apply and communicate meat science and technology.

Gifts and Funds

AMSA is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. All gifts are tax deductible to the extent provided by law. No part of the corporation's funds or income therefrom shall inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member.

¹ These bylaws supersede and replace any prior AMSA bylaws and, to the extent inconsistent, any organizational documents of a similar nature for all AMSA related committees or divisions, including but not limited to the American Meat Science Association Student Membership, the Development Council and the Intercollegiate Meat Coaches Association.

ARTICLE II – Membership

SECTION I. MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

AMSA’s membership shall consist of four categories: Professional Members, Emeritus Members, Student Members and Sustaining Partners.

1. Professional Member. Any person who is active in any aspect of meat science or supporting roles within the protein industry; and who evidences interest in supporting the objectives of the Association shall be eligible for consideration to become a Professional Member.
2. Emeritus Member. Any person who has retired from active professional life who has been an active member of AMSA for at least fifteen (15) years shall be eligible for consideration to become an Emeritus Member.
3. Student Member. Any person who is registered in an educational institution and who is actively pursuing candidacy for a degree (Associate or higher) in the field of meat science or one or more of the sciences or branches of technology associated with meat science, shall be eligible for consideration to become a Student Member.
4. Sustaining Partner Member. The Sustaining Partner membership classification is designed for companies, agencies, educational institutions, or associations actively participating in AMSA, and/or which supply goods or services to the meat industry. In its discretion, the Board may create categories of such memberships detailing the various eligibility standards.

SECTION II. MEMBERSHIP APPROVAL

1. An individual can request a Professional or Student Membership through an online application. AMSA staff, with Board oversight, will review the application and determine in its sole discretion whether to accept membership.
2. A Professional Member that is eligible for consideration to become an Emeritus Member can request a change in membership category by submitting a request in writing (via email or letter) to the Board. Following submission, the Board of Directors will approve or deny the request in its sole discretion.
3. Sustaining Partner members are approved by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion.

SECTION III. MEMBERSHIP PRIVILEGES AND BENEFITS

1. Only Professional and Emeritus Members shall be eligible to vote as to any matters submitted to membership for consideration.
2. Only Professional Members are eligible to hold an elected office.
3. All members are entitled to receive copies of all current AMSA materials and publications, some of which may have a cost to the member requesting the material. Back issues may be purchased, if available. Board of Directors minutes are available to any member upon request.

SECTION IV. MEMBERSHIP DUES

Professional, Emeritus, and Student Members shall pay such annual dues as are fixed by the Board of Directors.

SECTION V. SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

1. Financial: Any member whose dues are ninety (90) days past due shall be notified of the delinquency and suspended from membership. If dues are not paid within the succeeding thirty (30) days, the delinquent member forfeits all rights and privileges and may be terminated at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors. Members suspended for non-payment of dues may be reinstated at any time upon payment of the current year's dues.
2. Organizational Core Purpose: Any member that engages in actions which are deemed by the Board of Directors to be inconsistent with AMSA's Mission and Vision or are otherwise disruptive to AMSA may be removed as a member by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, after such member is given a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

ARTICLE III - Officers, Board of Directors, and Committees

SECTION I. OFFICERS

1. Titles. The officers of the Association are a President, President-Elect, Past-President and Treasurer.
2. Qualifications. Officers must be Professional Members of the Association and have previously served on the Board of Directors.

The Nominations and Elections Committee must confirm each candidate's eligibility, qualifications and willingness to serve if elected.

ARTICLE V - Meetings and Conferences

SECTION I. ANNUAL MEETING

The Association holds an annual meeting of the regular membership at the place and on the date that the Board of Directors determines. Written or electronic notice of said meeting shall be given to all members not less than sixty (60) days in advance of each annual meeting.

SECTION II. SPECIAL MEETINGS OF THE REGULAR MEMBERSHIP

Other meetings of the regular membership may be held at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Directors, or by written petition of twenty-five (25) or more Professional Members. Written or electronic notice of such meetings shall be given to all members not less than sixty (60) days in advance.

SECTION III. QUORUM

At any meeting of the Association, fifty (50) members present in person and/or virtually as determined by the Board and entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum. Proxy voting is not permitted. Electronic or mail voting is not permitted except for officer elections and bylaw amendments.

ARTICLE VI - Fiscal Procedures

SECTION I. FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Association shall be a calendar year unless modified by the Board of Directors.

SECTION II. ANNUAL BUDGET

The Board of Directors shall, by such procedure as it may prescribe, adopt a budget each fiscal year, appropriating funds for the operation of the Association. Funds to meet this budget may be provided by members' dues or other revenue sources.

ARTICLE VII - Amendments

SECTION I. SUBMISSION OF AMENDMENTS

1. Amendments to these Bylaws may be proposed by the Board of Directors on its own initiative, or upon petition by not less than twenty-five (25) members eligible to vote.

2. Proposed bylaw amendments must be submitted to the President who shall ensure that the proposed amendment is voted on in accordance with Article VII Section II.

SECTION II. VOTING ON AMENDMENTS

1. Proposed bylaw amendments submitted pursuant to Article VII Section I shall become effective if the requirements of Article V Section III are met and the amendment passes by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the eligible members casting ballots.
2. Proposed amendments shall be voted on at the annual business meeting unless the Board of Directors determines that another form of voting is warranted. Members will be allowed at least thirty (30) days to review the amendment when balloting is completed solely at the annual meeting. If electronic or mail balloting or any other virtual form of voting is used, whether in conjunction with the annual meeting or on its own, members will be allowed at least fifteen (15) days to comment on proposed amendments and another thirty (30) days before balloting closes.

ARTICLE VIII - Rules

The Board of Directors is empowered to adopt such rules as do not conflict with these Bylaws and may be necessary for the proper governance of the Association. Such rules shall become operative when adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Board members present and voting.

ARTICLE IX - Distribution of Assets

On dissolution of the Association, any funds and assets remaining after the discharge of all debts and obligations shall be conveyed to one or more eligible educational or scientific organizations selected by the Board. To be eligible, any organization to which the remaining funds and property of the Association are to be conveyed must be exempt under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1954, as amended, or under any successor to said Section of the Code, as it may be in effect at the time of conveyance.
