

2021 AWARDS PROGRAM ENTRY MATERIALS

American Meat Science Association

INFORMATION FOR THE FOLLOWING AWARDS

RESEARCH
TEACHING
EXTENSION/INDUSTRY SERVICE
INDUSTRY AND ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP
ACHIEVEMENT
INTERCOLLEGIATE MEAT JUDGING MERITORIOUS SERVICE
INTERNATIONAL LECTURESHIP AWARD

American Meat Science Association

INTENT TO NOMINATE

I have reviewed the eligibility requirements for the following awards and intend to nominate the people indicated for those awards.

- Distinguished Teaching Award: _____
- Distinguished Research Award: _____
- Distinguished Extension-Industry Service Award: _____
- Industry and Organizational Leadership Award: _____
- Intercollegiate Meat Judging Meritorious Service Award: _____
- Achievement Award: _____

Nominator: _____

Return this Intent to Nominate form by Monday, March 12, 2021 to:

AMSA
Rachel Adams
6806 Bethany Lane
Sumner, IL 62466

or by fax to 888-205-5834

or submit the information electronically:
<http://www.meatscience.org/awards-scholarships/professional-awards-program/nomination>

The complete nomination packet is due by March 29, 2021

American Meat Science Association

AWARDS PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS AND NOMINATION FORM

The AMSA Award Committees seek your nominations for the 2021 AMSA Awards described herein. A single nomination form is provided.

GENERAL RULES FOR ALL AMSA AWARDS

ELIGIBILITY FOR THE AWARDS

1. AMSA members are eligible for any of the awards if they have been a professional member of the Association for at least three (3) consecutive calendar years prior to the date of their nomination. Membership is not required of nominees for the Intercollegiate Meat Judging Meritorious Service Award.
2. Officers and voting members of the Board of Directors of the AMSA are ineligible for all distinguished service awards given by the Association during their term of office.
3. No member of the Distinguished Teaching Award, Distinguished Research Award, Distinguished Extension-Industry Service Award, Industry and Organizational Leadership Award, International Award, Achievement Award, and Intercollegiate Meat Judging Meritorious Service Award Selection Committees shall be eligible for the award judged by that committee.
4. No member is eligible to win more than one award (Distinguished Teaching, Distinguished Research, Distinguished Extension-Industry Service, Industry and Organizational Leadership, R. C. Pollock, Signal Service, Special Recognition, International, Achievement, and Intercollegiate Meat Judging Meritorious Service) in one year.
5. No previous recipient of an award is eligible to win the same award again.
6. The nominee must be living at the time the nomination is submitted.

NOMINATION OF AWARDS

1. Any active professional or emeritus member of the Association may make an award nomination, except current AMSA officers, voting members of the Board of Directors, and members of an award's Selection Committee. However, no member may nominate himself/herself.
2. AMSA must receive nominations by March 12, 2021. Nominations received after this date will not be eligible for consideration.
3. Nominations made in one year will be automatically carried over for up to three years for all awards except the Undergraduate Scholastic Achievement Award. The original nominator may update the nomination materials as needed.

DISTINGUISHED RESEARCH AWARD

AN HONORARIUM, A SUITABLY ENGRAVED WRISTWATCH, AND AN APPROPRIATE MEMENTO.

Purpose: To recognize outstanding research in the meat industry.

Eligibility: The nominee must:

1. Have demonstrated exceptional competency as a researcher in meat science.
2. Be an active researcher during the year in which nominated and have been an active researcher for not less than 5 years. This does not exclude administrators, providing they were personally involved in research during the year. Where disability is involved, nominees must have engaged in research within 36 months prior to the month of the award presentation.
3. Be judged as a researcher on the following bases:
 - Creative ability and adherence to sound scientific philosophy and scholarly principles.
 - Important contributions pertaining to research and/or include, but not be limited to, published research data, plans, methods, processes, devices, or inventions that are significant and beneficial to the meat industry through either theoretical or practical application.
 - Diversification of activities, such as directing graduate/postdoctoral student programs; organizing/chairing special conferences/symposia; invited lectures/participation; service on the nominee's university/company/agency committees, etc. (Not all of these activities are necessary for consideration for the award.)
 - Recognition by the scientific community, such as honors and awards, participation on state, national and international committees, panels or commissions, etc.
 - Service to animal agricultural and related industries.

DISTINGUISHED EXTENSION-INDUSTRY SERVICE AWARD

HONORARIUM, A SUITABLY ENGRAVED WRISTWATCH, AND AN APPROPRIATE MEMENTO.

Purpose: To recognize outstanding achievement in the field of meat science extension and/or industry service.

Eligibility: The nominee must:

1. Have demonstrated outstanding ability as an extension-industry service specialist in some phase of the meat industry.
2. Be an active specialist during the year in which nominated and have been an active specialist for not less than 5 years. This does not exclude administrators, providing they were personally involved in extension-industry service work during the year. Where disability is involved, nominees must be engaged in extension-industry service activities within 36 months prior to the month of the award presentation.
3. Be judged as a specialist on the following bases:
 - Qualities of leadership as demonstrated by ability to influence others to act and adopt improved practices related to the production, processing, preservation, preparation and utilization of meat and meat products.
 - Mastery of subject matter, techniques, vision, enthusiasm and attitudes.
 - Important contributions pertaining to consumer education; live animal and/or carcass evaluation; meat production; meat distribution; or the processing, preservation, preparation, and utilization of meat and meat products. Such contributions may be in initiation and development of programs and projects for the dissemination of information to adults, college/universities, 4-H, or junior groups, or to companies/organizations or activities concerned with or related to meat and meat products.
 - Extent of acceptance and application of concepts, recommended techniques, programs, etc. and their influence on the meat industry and the producers, processors, and consumers of meat and meat products.
 - Diversification of activities, such as participation in research and development or resident teaching activities; service on the nominees university/company/agency/NGO committees; participation on state, national or international committees, panels or commissions, etc. (Not all of these activities are necessary for consideration for the award.)
 - Service to animal agriculture and related industries.

DISTINGUISHED TEACHING AWARD

AN HONORARIUM, A SUITABLY ENGRAVED WRISTWATCH, AND AN APPROPRIATE MEMENTO.

Purpose: To recognize excellence in teaching of undergraduate and graduate meat science courses.

Eligibility: The nominee must:

1. Have demonstrated outstanding ability as a teacher of courses in meat science.
2. Be an active teacher during the year in which nominated and have been an active teacher for not less than 5 years. This does not exclude administrators, providing they were personally involved in classroom teaching during the year (excluding seminars). Where disability is involved, nominee must have engaged in teaching within 36 months prior to the month of the award presentation.
3. Be judged as a teacher on the following bases:
 - Ability to motivate and stimulate students.
 - Evidence of interest in the improvement of teaching.
 - Mastery of subject matter taught, teaching techniques, vision, enthusiasm and attitudes.
 - Content and nature of the courses taught, including organization of subject matter, original contributions, ability to translate research into useful knowledge, and the manner in which the nominee has kept up with developments in meat science and related areas.
 - Diversification of activities, such as student counseling; judging team coaching; student training; student placement; service on departmental, college and university committee, etc. (Not all of these activities are necessary for consideration for the award.)
 - Involvement in extracurricular student-related activities beyond teaching and advising duties, such as adviser to student organizations, special lectures and talks, etc.
 - Service to animal agriculture and related industries.

INDUSTRY AND ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP AWARD

AN HONORARIUM, A SUITABLY ENGRAVED WRISTWATCH AND AN APPROPRIATE MEMENTO.

Purpose: To recognize those who have demonstrated outstanding leadership in an area related to the meat industry.

Eligibility: The nominee must:

1. Have demonstrated outstanding ability as a leader which has enhanced and progressed the meat industry through their contributions.
2. Currently work in the meat, livestock, or allied industries (supplier, trade association, etc.) and be directly involved in business or industry leadership. Leadership roles at universities are included.
3. Been an AMSA member for at least 5 years and have demonstrated an active role in the association.
4. Be judged as a leader on the following attributes:
 - Innovative leadership and demonstrated ability to lead successful teams and projects.
 - Important contributions that have the potential for lasting industry impacts.
 - Ability to mentor, communicate, and positively influence others
 - Creative problem-solving ability and demonstrated the ability to work collaboratively
 - Community service and outreach including service to animal agriculture, the meat industry and related initiatives.

INTERCOLLEGIATE MEAT JUDGING MERITORIOUS SERVICE AWARD

AN APPROPRIATELY ENGRAVED PLAQUE

Purpose: To recognize outstanding contributions or service to the Intercollegiate Meat Judging Program.

Eligibility: The nominee must:

1. Have made distinguished and meritorious contributions to the Intercollegiate Meat Judging Program.
2. Display characteristics of loyalty, enthusiasm and dedication to the meat industry.
3. Not be an officer of the Coaches Association in the year nominated.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

- Nominator may not be a current officer of the Intercollegiate Meat Coaches Association Executive Committee. Do NOT submit a separate list of publications and presentations.

ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

AN ENGRAVED WRISTWATCH AND A PLAQUE

Purpose: To recognize and foster development of young AMSA members (academic, industry, government) who have demonstrated significant skills and contribution to the animal products industry and the American Meat Science Association.

Eligibility: The nominee must have:

1. Demonstrated early on, innovation and aggressive leadership, which has resulted in a successful track record of accomplishments and promises greater contributions to the meat industry in years to come.
2. Been an AMSA Professional member for no more than 10 years.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

The nomination statement should include a discussion of the nominee's early career contribution's including their significance to the meat science. The statement should be as complete as possible without exceeding four (4) double spaced, type written pages. This information may include such accomplishments as patents, trademarks, non-proprietary projects, number of products developed, number of students graduated, number/amounts of grants obtained, improvements in products or processes which have resulted in production efficiencies, novel process developments, development of managerial skills, and any other activities indicative of achievement in industry, academia or government. A discussion of the Nominee's involvement with AMSA should be included. Information on numbers of publications (peer-reviewed articles as senior author; peer reviewed articles as contributing author; book chapters; extension bulletins; trade publications; abstracts) and presentations may be included in this statement. Do NOT submit a separate list of publications and presentations.

INTERNATIONAL LECTURESHIP AWARD

AN HONORARIUM AND A PLAQUE

Purpose:

- To honor an individual for internationally recognized contributions to the field of meat science and technology.
- To recognize the recipient's active leadership and promotion of international activities in fostering cooperation and open communication, and the dissemination of knowledge for the benefit of society through meat science and technology.
- To provide an opportunity for the recipient to share his/her expertise with the AMSA membership. To enhance, expand and promote the international scope of the AMSA.

Selection: The Reciprocal Meat Conference Program Planning Committee will select the recipient of the award based on the eligibility criteria. The committee will request recommendations from the AMSA membership but is free to select any individual who meets the following criteria. The recommendation must include the name and affiliation of the individual and a brief statement of qualification, no more than 2 pages. Nominations are submitted in August for voting on October, for more information please contact Deidrea Mabry, dmabry@meatscience.org

Eligibility: The Award Winner must:

- Be an internationally recognized individual who has made distinguished and meritorious contributions to meat science and technology. Particular attention will be paid to longtime benefits of these contributions on the international scene.
- Be active in current research.
- Agree to give a presentation to the membership of the AMSA at the Reciprocal Meat Conference in the year the award is conferred. The subject of the presentation will deal primarily with the individual's research interests.

AMERICAN MEAT SCIENCE ASSOCIATION AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

This form, or a photocopy of it, may be used to nominate an individual for AMSA awards.

1. Name of Award: _____

2. Name of Nominee: _____

Title: _____

Employer: _____

Street Address: _____

City, State Zip Code, Country: _____

Phone Number: _____ Fax Number: _____

E-mail address: _____

3. Attach nomination materials in the following order:

- a. A cover letter from the nominator, certifying the nominee's eligibility for the award.
- b. A typewritten CV/Resume: Include a list of publications, patents or other relevant articles of which the nominee is an author (publications not applicable to the Achievement or Meat Judging Meritorious Service awards).
- c. A nomination statement: to include a discussion of nominee's contributions and their significance to the meat industry, making specific reference to programs, projects and/or publications that relate to the eligibility description for the specific award. This discussion should be as complete as possible without exceeding two (2) double-spaced typewritten pages (four (4) pages for the Achievement Award – see award description).
- d. Endorsement letters: Neither less than two, nor more than five (5) letters may be attached for all awards (except the Achievement award, which has a maximum of three (3) letters). Letters should be from representatives of the institution/organization with which the nominee is affiliated (his/her administrators, colleagues or associates) and other persons in the field of meat science and technology or the meat industry, citing the nominee's qualifications with regard to the specific award description.

4. Your Name (Nominator):

Company/Institution: _____

Street Address: _____

City, State Zip Code, Country: _____

Phone Number: _____ Fax Number: _____

E-mail address: _____

I certify that all information contained herein is factual and that I am a current member of AMSA.

Signed: _____ Date: _____

Please email your nomination packet as one file (titled -Name of Nominee_Award Name) to Awards@meatscience.org by March 29, 2021.